Having disposed of the liquor question, the next thing for the Legislature to do, will be to adopt some system of Free Schools. The present one is a failure, as was intended to be a success. By the capitulation of La Garrett, elected from the Chattanooga District in place of Mr. Stokes, be true, that he, Garrett, "would not make a first class idiot," it is a question whether Congress might not be justified in refusing to admit him to a seat, on the ground of mental incapacity. It is bad enough to have at best, but to allow a "fool Democrat" to represent it. would be intolerable.

NOT SATISFIED.

We learn that Mr. James White, designs contesting Hon. R. R. Butler's seat in Congress on the ground that gross frauds were committed in the election, which caused his, Mr. White's defeat. We have no idea that Mr. White will do any such thing. Mr. Butler's majority is too decided to admit of any hope for Mr. White on that ground; even if he could prove frauds to have been committed which we seriously doubt. The people have pronounced their verdict on Mr. White's claims, and it is against him. He has everything to lose, and nothing to gain by attempting to over-ride it. A graceful submission to the will of the people is always the wisest course for a politician, and in all kindness we advise Mr. White to save his money and devote his time to something more profitable than prosecuting a contest in which he has not the ghost of a chance of succeeding. Mr. to a withdrawal of the circular. The time may come when his virtues will be better appreciated and his faults, covered by the mantle of Charity, will not appear half so flagrant; we may then look to see him go up in the estimation of the people like a rocket, and may good fortune prevent his encountering the fate of the stick.
